Magnilay

by Wilfred Marbella

Last September, up and coming artist, Datu Arellano featured “Magnilay”, a mixed-media collection that elicited varied responses from the academic community. His pieces were made from the most ordinary of materials; from coffee stains to match stick heads, from plastic bottles to twisted tissue paper. He created wall pieces that made these items look different from what we normally see.

This is the second time that Datu Arellano has exhibited in the DLSU Art Gallery. The first was his unforgettable Scnell that featured a sculpture in the round and an installation piece. Certainly, this artist experimentation has not ceased.
