C. Valenzuela Retires

by Ms. Clarita D. Tagasa

After 20 years of dedicated service to the university as public programs coordinator and media specialist, Ms. Cresencia B. Valenzuela officially retired on August 31, 2007.

Ms. Cres, as she is fondly called by her colleagues in the Library, joined DLSU in 1988 and was initially hired as Head of the Instructional Media Services (IMS). Her being creative, resourceful, and good conversationalist made her the first public programs coordinator of the DLSU-M Library in 1996. As the public programs coordinator, she took charge of promoting the image of the library by putting up exhibits, conducting library tours, attending to visitors, and managing the monthly publication of the Library’s newsletter called Balitang Aklatan. It was not only the Library that benefited from C. Valenzuela’s versatility but also the Philippine Association of Academic and Research Librarians (PAARL) where she served as the editor-in-chief of its newsletter for three consecutive years from 2005 to 2007.

As an expert in the application of PowerPoint software in classroom teaching, she also served as one of the trainers of the DLSU Center for Educational Multimedia (CREM) where she trains faculty members on the use of educational multi-media technology in the classroom particularly the application of PowerPoint software. Aside from this, she also often gets invited to train/lecture on the various preparation and presentation.

The SMI-IC (previously I-IC) was established in 1974 to serve as an instrument for the maximization of institutional resources among its member schools which was originally composed five members, namely the Philippine Christian University, Philippine Normal University, St. Paul University-Manila, St. Scholastica’s College, Manila, and the De La Salle University-Manila. ce-Logic, Inc., an affiliate of the C&E Publishing, Inc. in cooperation with the Philippine Librarians’ Association, Inc. (PLAI) and the National Capital Region Librarians Council (NCRLC) sponsored a seminar entitled Shaping the Library of the Future which was held on August 29, 2007 at the World Trade Center, Diosdado Macapagal Blvd., Pasay City, as one of the activities of the 28th Manila International Book Fair. The seminar was provided free and was attended by some DLSU Library faculty and staff namely Vivian Soriente, Rolando Masindo, Jojie Gonda, Bob Cauilan, Christopher Felipe, Catherine Turla, and Jorge Bundalian.

Topics discussed included “From Selection to Access” which was a product presentation of Thomson Gale presented by Mr. Masaki Morisawa, Senior Product Specialist of Thomson Learning Asia, and Empowering Libraries: the Effect of Modernization and Emerging Technologies in the Philippines delivered by Ms. Corazon M. Nera, Chairman of the Board for Librarians and Chief Librarian of Lyceum of the Philippines, where she presented the importance of empowering librarians and the effects of modernization and emerging technology to Philippine libraries.
Faculty Librarians Receive Awards

This school year’s recipients of Service Awards during the Annual Faculty Recognition held last August 29, 2007 included three faculty librarians, namely Purisima B. Fernando, Cresencia B. Valenzuela and Agnes S. Barsaga.

Twenty-five year service awardee, P. Fernando, currently heads the Cataloging Section. Quiet, diligent, and meticulous would best describe her as a worker. Her love for cataloging is very much evident by the fact that she has worked in the said section for the entire duration of her stay in the university and has no plans of transferring to other units/sections of the University Library.

C. Valenzuela, on the other hand, received the 20-year service award. Cres has significantly contributed to the enhancement of the Library Newsette (Balitang Aklatan) and was the first public programs coordinator of the University Library.

Another cataloger, A. Barsaga, received the 10-year service award. Agnes took charge of cataloging non-print materials such as VHS tapes and compact discs. She is at present working on the processing of theses and dissertations collections.

The three librarians received tokens of appreciation from the University during the awarding ceremony for their loyal and dedicated services.

techniques on the use of overhead projectors to teachers and librarians of other schools and universities around the country.

The other side of Ms. Cres reveals a compassionate and spiritual person. She actively participated in the activities of the Lasallian Pastoral Office by regularly attending mass, joining retreats and recollections, and serving as lector during masses held at the Pearl of the Great Price Chapel. Even in the community where she lives, she takes active part in the activities of the parish and supports fundraising activities for a cause. A very thoughtful friend, Ms. Cres never fails to bring “pasalubong” as she comes back from seminars here and abroad.

And so, on the occasion of her retirement, the Library honors and salutes this good natured lady for being one of the best media specialists of her generation.

His contribution to the field of social science is made evident by his numerous publications. He was the former Dean of the College of Social Sciences and Philosophy of the University of the Philippines, Diliman and finished his Doctorate in Ethnology in Cultural Anthropology at Sorbonne Universite de Paris. He also taught Philippine psychology at the De La Salle University-Manila.

Included in Dr. Salazar’s collection are books, periodical materials, manuscripts, and personal papers. The collection will be part of the Library’s Special collections which will be housed at the University Archives. His book collection is currently being exhibited at the Lobby of the University Library.
