The Instructional Media Services (IMS) in Focus

The Instructional Media Services (IMS) of the De La Salle University-Manila Library provides the academic community with multimedia and audiovisual resources and services to meet their instructional and research needs. It takes charge of the development, maintenance and management of multimedia materials and equipment.

It houses and circulates more than 2,000 audio-visual materials such as:

- Digital Video Discs (DVD)
- Video Compact Discs (VCD)
- Compact Disc-Read Only Memory (CD-ROM)
- Laser Discs (LD)
- Audio Compact Discs (CD)
- Video Cassette Tapes (VHS Format)
- Audio Cassette Tapes
- Filmstrips and 35mm colored slides (now being digitized)

Aside from these it also circulates the following audio-visual and projection equipment and devices:

MULTIMEDIA EQUIPMENT

- Multimedia/LCD/DLP Projectors
- Laptop Computers
- Data Converters (Averkey)
- Visualizers/Document Projectors
- DVD/VCD/CDR/CDR-W/MP3/CD Player
- Laser Disc Player
- VHS Player
- Audio / PA System
- Opaque Projector (upon request)
- Overhead Projector

AV EQUIPMENT

- Opaque Projectors
- Overhead Projectors
- Slide Projectors
- Filmstrip Projectors
- Karaoke
- Tape Recorders
- Microphones

The IMS also takes charge of the scheduling of the use of multimedia rooms located at Velasco Building (V210), Miguel Hall (M406), Andrew Gonzalez Hall, and IMS Office. Below are the projection/viewing rooms under the IMS:

PROJECTION SERVICES/VIEWING ROOMS

V-210 (Second Floor, Velasco Building)

Members of the Library Management Committee of the DLSU-M Library, namely, Jocelyn Balangue, Agnes Barsaga, Purisima Fernando, Willian Frias, Jocelyn Ladlad, Yolanda Odsinada, Elizabeth Padilla, Vivian Soriente, Clarita Tagasa, and Ana Maria B. Fresnido, attended the SMI-IC sponsored seminar on Strategic Planning for Library Administrators, held at the LRC, SDA Bldg., DLS-College of St. Benilde, on February 28, 2008. Also in attendance were 20 other librarians/library administrators from SMI-IC member libraries.

The resource speaker, Mr. Dioscoro Baylon, Dean, School of Professional and Continuing Education (SpaCE) of the DLS-College of St. Benilde, discussed the general concepts of strategic management; the process of identifying the organization’s external and internal environments; creating and selecting general strategies to be pursued; and allocating resources in order to achieve the organization’s goals; and monitoring implementation. Workshops followed after the lectures and the participants were asked to work in groups and later on share their output.

The speaker also shared his insights on how to achieve one’s goals in life through the creation of vision boards. Furthermore, he gave pieces of advise and concluded that “to live freely and be able to attain our goals in life, one should follow his passion and the law of attraction; think positively and give up negative attitudes by simply following this principle in life: Intention, Attention and NO tension.”

Ladlad Invited as Resource Speaker

Ms. Jocelyn L. Ladlad, librarian of the European Documentation and Research Centre (EDRC) and the American Studies Resource Center (ASRC), was invited by the Quezon City Librarians Association (QCLA) to be one of the resource speakers for the Seminar-Workshop on Trends & Practices in Customer Service in Libraries & Information Centers, held in Pryce Hotel, Cagayan de Oro, on February 20-22, 2008. She delivered two lectures entitled Best Practices in Library Service and Maintaining Customer Loyalty. Her first lecture discussed on current practices of libraries in the Philippines and abroad, particularly those relating to integrated library systems, on-line subscriptions/e-resources and organization of digital materials and other technologies as applied to libraries. The second lecture, on the other hand, dealt on ways to effectively serve the library customers.

Valerio Delivers Paper

The Medical and Health Librarians Association of the Philippines conducted a two-day Seminar-Workshop with the theme: The Expanding Knowledge Base Competencies of Medical/Health Sciences Libraries and Librarians held on February 28-29, 2008, at Hotel Kimberly, P. Gil St., Manila. The primary goal of the seminar-workshop was to review and discuss the evolving role of health librarians and information professionals, in order to adapt to recent developments in medical and health librarianship. Ms. Marita G. Valerio, bibliographic control librarian, being one of the invited resource speakers shared her knowledge and expertise on the topic Creating Webliographies. Her topic aided the participants in developing new skills in acquiring, organizing, storing, retrieving, and disseminating quality health information accessible on the Internet. She also discussed on the criteria in selecting the best websites using the best search engine tools.

Guinto Receives Medrano Service Award

Mr. Gregorio G. Guinto, university photographer, was one of the recipients of the Juan Medrano Service Award, an award given to employees of the De La Salle University for having continuously served the university for 25 years. The awarding ceremony was held at the Chapel of Great Price on January 26, 2008, in line with the celebration of the 97th year of Lasallian presence in the Philippines. Greg was hired on August 24, 1981 and started as a project typist of the Inter-Institutional Consortium (now South Manila Inter-Institutional Consortium) Processing Center. He was later absorbed by DLSU and assumed a regular position on October 17, 1983 at the Cataloging Section, where he worked as a library clerk. Three years after, he was promoted as technician at the Instructional Media Services (IMS) and in 1997 became the university photographer.

The following policies/guidelines govern the use of projection/viewing rooms:
IMS VIEWING ROOMS
1. Reservation may be done at any of the IMS reservation counters (IMS at the University Library and IMS-AGH)
2. Reservation should be made at least a day before the scheduled activity.
3. Only classes that will require the use of PowerPoint presentation are allowed to reserve and use the viewing rooms. (This policy does not apply to the Individual Viewing Room (IVR).
4. For faculty members and graduate school students, reservation is allowed by telephone or via e-mail.
5. A DLSU faculty member may reserve for the use of the viewing rooms

which may require the use of the following:

a. Interactive Multimedia Applications
b. Virtual/On-line Instruction
c. Video/Teleconferencing
d. Other emerging technologies

2. Only DLSU faculty members who have already taken at least the first training modules conducted by the Center for Educational Multimedia (CREM) or its equivalent shall be allowed to conduct classes at the PHINMA E-classroom.

3. The PHINMA E-Classroom shall likewise be available for CREM’s internal and external training programs whenever the number of participants exceeds 10.

4. The PHINMA E-Classroom is not intended for film viewing, PowerPoint presentations and class reporting.

5. A qualified technician will be stationed inside the PHINMA E-Classroom whenever in use and is directly responsible for its technical operation and management.

6. It is advised that a test run be made prior to the scheduled date of use for purposes of familiarization.

7. The “No Eating and Drinking” policy shall be strictly enforced inside the PHINMA E-Classroom.

8. The IMS reserves the right to cancel reservation/use of the PHINMA E-Classroom upon violation of any of the abovementioned policies.

MINI E-CLASSROOM

Equipped with the latest in instruction technologies, the mini-e-classroom has ten (10) computer workstations, a digital projector, and a screen.

1. The Mini E-Classroom shall be available to all DLSU graduate students for their research, multimedia production needs and other course requirements, on a first come-first served basis.

2. It is not intended for internet surfing, web games, personal chat and other activities not related to the course requirements.

3. A registered and validated DLSU I.D. is required to log in and use the workstation at the IMS graduate area.

4. It is encouraged that users use micro floppy disks (diskettes) or flash discs in saving documents and other programs because all units in the area are regularly cleaned and freed from unnecessary programs and saved documents.

5. A technician is assigned in the area whenever in use.
Remembering Ulysses Lelis
compiled by Jorge B. Bundalian

The demise of Mr. Ulysses Lelis, a dear friend and officemate, led us to ponder on the value of life and the inevitability of death. When I first met Uly nine years ago (he was supposed to receive his 10th year service award next year), he was a quiet and naïve guy who would always greet us with his infectious smile. As I got to know him better, I found out that he was very friendly, vocal, humorous, and jolly. As friends, we actually have something in common—we both love to travel. We never missed summer outings with our friends in the library. I actually cannot count the places we had been to.

As a worker, he was very conscientious and hardworking. He was able to finish his bachelor’s degree in Computer Programming in APC while working in DLSU. He also dreamt of having a computer rental business.

People close to Uly intimately shared their thoughts of him as a library staff, a co-worker and a friend:

“I can say that even for a short period of time that I became his boss and he became my staff, he was truly a person that I can rely on. He did his job well. Every time I asked [him] for something [or] to look for whatever books we need, he will look for that book right away and report to me the status. I will surely miss his ‘good morning’ or ‘good afternoon boss’ with a smile every time he arrives in the office. I will miss him. May you rest in peace ULY!—Vivian Soriente, Head Circulation-Reserve Section.

“Uly worked as a contractual encoder in the Periodicals Section where I was first assigned as an ASF, that was in 1997. I will always remember Uly for his respect. Everytime we talk, I can feel his respect for me, for everyone whom he thought is worth respecting. He was goal-driven and very industrious. I was lucky to have him as one of my first subordinates, for he could be counted on to. We may have never been close as friends for he always treated me as a superior, but we talked a lot about life, about his family. That is why I know he valued his mother the most, for never in our deep conversations did he exclude his mother. Uly, may you stay in God’s divine embrace and serve as our prayer warrior. Thank you for the times you shared with us. God bless.”—William S.A. Frias, Head, Technical Services.

“A warm person and always with a grin on his face! Ulysses has been the ‘lawyer or spokesman’ of our group (Circulation staff) simply because he was the most vocal and never afraid to express his opinion. He is analytical over things concerning his job and his co-staff; and always offer practical solutions to problems encountered. Uly has been very helpful and cooperative. All these traits of Ulysses endeared himself among his friends and co-staff and on a personal level, made my supervision task a lot easier and oh, very lively. Go Uly go!!! and continue touching other people’s lives the way you touched ours. Trust, you will always remain in our minds and hearts.”—Clarita Tagasa, University Archivist

“Almost 10 years na kaming magkakilala ni Uly, naging mahusay na kaibigan, mabait na ninong sa pangalawa kong anak, kakulitan tuwing magkikita ngunit seryoso pag seryoso ang mga bagay na pinag-uusapan. Gaya din sya sa ibang kaibigan na maaasahan, masayang kasama at mapagkakatiwalaan.”—Joel Gementiza, Asst. librarian, Periodicals Section

“Uly is a simple, quiet guy but he crack[s] jokes that will surely make you laugh. He is also a good friend that you can share your ups and downs. A God-fearing individual, “palasimba yan” as what her mother told me. He’s a reliable worker, he is always there to help you in any way he could.”—Rolando Masindo, Asst. Librarian, Circulation-Reserve Section.

“Nang makilala ko siya dito sa La Salle ay gusto ko na ang kanyang pagkakatao, siya ay totoo at madaling pakibagayan. Si Uly ay simple lang, tahimik, masipag sa trabaho at higit sa lahat, maaasahan sa lahat ng bagay. Sayang nga lang at bigla siyang pumanaw”—Reynaldo Matias, Clerk, Depository.

Uly left behind a mother, two siblings, and a girlfriend whom he was supposed to marry in April 2008.

To you my friend, we will definitely miss you. We are all grateful for the friendship and the memories, both happy and sad, we shared with you.
Seminar-Workshop on Organizing and Managing Filipiniana Collections  by Annabelle F. Aliwalas

On February 15-16, 2008, the Center for Human Research and Development Foundation, Inc. sponsored a seminar-workshop on Organizing and Managing Filipiniana Collections and Services for Effective Delivery of Information, held at the Institute for Small-Scale Industries (ISSI) of the University of the Philippines, Diliman, Quezon City. It was attended by 23 librarians from Luzon, Visayas, and Mindanao including Annabelle F. Aliwalas, Filipiniana Librarian, as one of the participants.

Prof. Corazon M. Nera, Director of Libraries, Lyceum of the Philippines and Chairman of PRC Board for Librarians was the resource speaker on the 1st day of the seminar where she discussed the core of Filipiniana collections in libraries and presented the different definitions of Filipiniana core collection. She emphasized that according to Buenrostro (2004), "the core remains undefined and most librarians doubt they exist." Nevertheless, she stressed that in building a Filipiniana core collection, a librarian must consider the mission and vision of the library. She also discussed on the idiosyncrasies of cataloging Filipiniana materials applying AACR2 2002 revision and provided samples of USMARC worksheet which every participant filled-up during the discussion.

Ms. Ma. Theresa B. Villanueva, Filipiniana Librarian of the Ateneo de Manila University- Rizal Library, on the other hand, delivered a paper on Acquisition of Filipiniana and Rare Books during the 2nd day. She discussed the importance of collection development policy, methods of acquiring materials, and the selection and evaluation of rare books.

The third speaker, Prof. Lourdes David, Director of Libraries, Ateneo de Manila University talked on Appropriate Information Services and Strategies to Promote Readership of Filipiniana Materials. She discussed the different steps of the marketing process such as: 1) Analyzing marketing opportunities/scanning the environment; 2) Selecting target customers and market positioning; 3) Developing the marketing mix; and 4) Managing the marketing effort. To promote readership, she also advised librarian to develop promotional strategies and conduct measurement of customer satisfaction. She stressed the need for good service by providing the customers with good experiences through the delivery of efficient and effective library service.

Hands-on demonstrations on how to make jacket for soft bound books and boxes for rare, brittle, and loose-page books, as well as, enclosures for the maps, pictures, certificates, etc. using MYLAR, were shown.

The seminar enabled the participants to upgrade their skills in the selection, acquisition, circulation and preservation of Filipiniana materials.

6. The “No Eating and Drinking” policy is strictly enforced inside the IMS graduate area.

Maintenance of overhead projectors placed in all the classrooms and the television sets with video players mounted on mobile cabinets stationed at different strategic floors of every building in campus is also handled by the IMS. It also takes charge of the acquisition, operation, and maintenance of all the technical requirements of the following:
